CHARITY FETE AT GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN IN A LEAGUE OF GOOD WORKS.

NEARLY TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS REALISED.

Saturday saw the climax of the multitudinous efforts made in all quarters of the Colony during the year on behalf of charity. A larger number of people than ever before thronged the ground of Government House for the annual fête of the Hongkong Women's Guild and Ministering Children's League. The fête was a big enough thing in itself but it is necessary—in order to preserve a sense of proportion—to preface an account of it with the proviso that, as Lady Stubbs said last year, the work on the day is not nearly so important as the sustained co-operative effort all through the year. Moreover, inmates of charitable institutions are not the only people who benefit. Once more the quality of mercy proves itself twice blessed "it blesses him that gives and him that takes." The women of Hongkong probably derive definite benefit to health from the work they do for charity during the trying summer months when they cannot follow outdoor pursuits. As for European children, so much is done for them in the Far East that an opportunity to do something for others less fortunately placed is a necessary counteract to tendencies to become selfish. In bringing together, for a common purpose, people of the thirty-two nationalities that the Census tells us inhabit the Colony of Hongkong, the fête makes its contribution towards the amelioration of our racial problems. In this connection, all in the inner circle of the organisation have nothing but praise for the way in which Mrs. Severn has taken charge in the absence, this year, of Lady Stubbs. Mrs. Severn's tact, thoughtfulness and personal charm have been of inestimable value in bringing a very large enterprise safely to completion. There was this year an exceptionally numerous attendance of the Chinese public and behind this fact was the influence of the Secretary for Chinese Affairs, (the Hon. Mr. E. R. Hallifax) who undertook an advertising campaign in the Chinese newspapers. Mr. Hallifax also arranged for all the notices in Chinese required for display in various parts of the grounds. Another power behind the scenes was Mr. J. Deakin, the custodian of Government House, who acted as a sort of honorary clerk-of-the-works, for days past, during the transformation of Government House grounds into an exhibition site. Mr. Staples, of the Public Works Department, supervised the erection of stalls and the Harbour Office carried out the general scheme of decorations, apart from what was done by the workers attached to the various stalls. These were the generalissimos of the army of folks who all contributed their part towards making the fête the success it undoubtedly was.

THE OPENING CEREMONY.

An account of the affair is simply a matter of piecing together an infinity of details and the first difficulty is where to begin. It will be convenient, perhaps, to start with the opening ceremony at two o'clock—though that is to omit to notice what must have been a very busy morning for everyone in getting the stalls arranged. The workers had one cause for special satisfaction: the day was not too sunny and there was not enough wind to disarrange things when they had been placed in position.

For the opening ceremony the Cadet Company of the Hongkong Volunteer Defence Corps paraded, under Inspector Davis, as a Guard of Honour and were inspected by H.E. Mr. Claud Severn and Mrs. Severn. Speaking from the balcony, H.E. the Officer Administering the Government (Mr. Claud Severn, C.M.G.) —who was accompanied by Mrs. Severn— declared the fête open in a brief speech in which he made reference to the enormous amount of work by all concerned which had gone to the making of the fête. Mr. Severn then joined the throng below and was soon to be both seen and heard giving lessons in showmanship to the megaphone man of the boxing exhibition. This was held in the Ball Room and was found to be a novel and very attractive entertainment. Members of the St. Stephen's Boys' School Branch of the Chin Woo Athletic Association—under the direction of Captain Warner—gave several exhibitions, during the afternoon, of Chinese boxing and fencing and, as word went round how interesting the entertainment was the audiences grew larger and larger. An extraordinary degree of suppleness and dexterity was required for the various exercises, some of which, particularly those with swords and staves, were highly spectacular. A somewhat similar entertainment was given before King George V., during the Delhi Durbar, by the Orissa Paiks.

A SILHOUETTE GALLERY.

In a room near by was a silhouette gallery which proved highly entertaining. Mr. F. R. J. Adams was certainly a host in himself in conducting the affair entirely as "a one-man show,"—except that Mrs. Adams helped to collect the admission-money. He had spent many hours before the fête in drawing silhouettes of well-known local people; these were exhibited on the walls and Mr. Adams undertook to do other silhouettes afterwards as prizes and as further help for the fund. Lady Rees-Davies named the subjects promptly and unerringly and tied for first prize. Everyone else, however, had difficulty in recognising one or two of the pictures. Mr. C. H. Thorne, the Chinese Commissioner of Customs, "floored" a good many competitors, including the Pressmen: he is not seen a great deal in public. Mr. Adams had caught the Officer Administering the Government in a downcast pose; one wondered whether the sketch had been made in Church during the recital of the General Confession or in the Council Chamber during the delivery of miles of Budget manuscripts. In several cases where the subjects have a characteristic poise of the head Mr. Adams had caught this so happily that the likeness could be identified by that alone. For the information of those who kept their cards and would like to know the silhouettes they could not guess, the full list is as follows:—

1. The Hon. Mr. E. V. Parr, 2. Mr. E. D. C. Wolfe, 3. Professor Middleton Smith, 4. Mr. H. F. White, 5. Mr. J. R. Wood, 6. Mr. R. Sutherland, 7. Mr. P. P. J. Wodehouse, 8. the Hon. Mr. J. H. Kemp, 9. H.E. the Officer Administering the Government, 10. Commodore Grace, 11. The Rev. H. Copley Moyle, 12. Mr. R. M. Dyer, 13. Mr. Eric Rice, 14. the Hon. Mr. E. R. Halifax, 15. the Hon. Mr. A. G. M. Fletcher, 16. Mr. C. H. Thorne.

NAVAL AND DOCKYARD STALL.

In that part of Government grounds which overlooks the harbour, the stalls for the sale of the work done during the year by grown-ups and children were arranged. The H.M.S. Tamar Naval and Dockyard Stall, which last year served shop from a model of the Mayflower, this year had a model of H.M.S. Tamar as a stall. The only drawback was that the ship was a little high out of water which made it difficult to see the things arranged on the deck for sale. However, novelty and attractiveness is the thing and this the Naval work party certainly achieved. One had hardly expected to see the ladies dressed as bluejackets to match their environment but nevertheless they were, and looked very well too. It may be mentioned for the information of those who were not there that skirts were retained. Mrs. Grace was captain of the ship and the crew comprised: the Misses Grace, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Ashton, Mrs. Bromwich, Mrs. Bickford, Mrs. Budden, Mrs. Church, Mrs. Cowen, Mrs. Dalton, Mrs. Greig, Mrs. and Miss Lamerton, Mrs. Lowe, Mrs. Marsh, Mrs. Nott, Mrs. Penman, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Budden, Mrs. Sanders, and Mrs. Thompson.

MILITARY STALL.

Was it a lucky omen that the military were moved quite a long way from the centre of things, this year. The Military Stall, directed by Mrs. Humphrey, assisted by the wives of officers, warrant officers and N.C.O.'s, and children of the Garrison School, was tucked away in a sort of cloister in a corner of the exhibition grounds. Business did not suffer in any way and, by five o'clock, very little was left at this stall to be sold by auction.

THE PEAK STALL.

Many handsome and artistic examples of fancy work were on sale at the Peak Stall where the workers were:—Mrs. McArthur (in charge), Mrs. Parr, Mrs. Raworth, Mrs. Grayburn, Mrs. Nisbet, Mrs. H. W. Bird, Mrs. Ram, Mrs. N. L. Smith and Mrs. Murdoch. The contribution of the Peak Stall to the charities fund, by the way, was much increased this year by the proceeds of a bridge tournament arranged by Lady Rees-Davies and the children's entertainments given recently at the Peak Club. The stall, in fact, had raised $1,000 before it began to sell.

VICTORIA STALL.

Victoria Stall had a dainty and attractive display under the title of "My Lady's Toilet." Much skill and feminine artistry had been devoted to the arrangement of the stall by Mrs. Middleton Smith and her helpers: Lady Brunyate, Mrs. Hinton, Mrs. Bannerman and Mrs. Bean.

POLICE STALL.

The Police Stall had supplied $400 worth of orders before the day and consequently had a smaller display than usual. Children's clothing was specialised in and Mrs. Gerrard served a bran pie at 20 cents a helping; it was quickly consumed. Mrs. Wolfe was in charge of the stall, assisted by Mrs. Wodehouse, Mrs. King, Mrs. Burlingham, Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. Garrod, Mrs. Kent, Mrs. Caygill and Miss Angus.

KOWLOON DOCK STALL.

The little community that lives within the walls of Kowloon Dock came into the fête this year as a separate entity, though individual members have been active enough in previous years. Mrs. William Forsyth was in charge of the stall and her helpers were Mrs. Wylie, Mrs. Johnstone, Mrs. Baxter, Mrs. Nicholls, Mrs. Groundwater, Mrs. Bliss, Mrs. Chitterton, Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. McIntosh, Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Bell. Miss Forsyth and Miss Kinross, had great success with a novelty stall under the lee of the big stall.

Kowloon, in various ways, made a considerable contribution towards the success of the fête. The Kowloon Candy Stall was generally admired for its attractive colour scheme of yellow and black. Home made candy was on sale and went off like hot cakes. Having tested the market Mrs. Cock, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Garraway and Mrs. Shepherd, who were in charge, will no doubt bring twice as much candy next year. A "new tennis game" also came from Kowloon. Mrs. Duncan was in charge, helped by Messrs. Simpson and H. Duncan and W. Forsyth, jun. The latter was made-up as the fair Suzanne Lenglen—bandeau and all complete.

The fête, through Mr. George Duncan, has left Government House the better for a miniature golf course which attracted followers of the game in search of new hazards. Messrs. Smyth and Forsyth were helpers on the course.

OTHER SIDE SHOWS.

To complete the account of the side shows, Mr. W. J. Carrie supervised a Chinese "Punch and Judy" provided specially for the amusement of youthful Chinese visitors who, no doubt, found the racket of the accompaniment very delightful. Under the auspices of the Military Stall was a gold fish pond under the direction of Col. Butterworth, C.M.G., D.S.O., assisted by Lieut. Taylor (an Izaak Walton in an opera hat!) and Miss Betty Humphrys. A chute connected with the Naval Stall was directed by Petty Officers Saunders, Day, McGrath, Joynt and Chesters; a lucky well was worked by Ch. Shpt. T. Collins, M.A.A., Robt. J. Soods, C.P.O. Geo. Ferris, and O. Art. J. Shepherd, (all of H.M.S. Tamar). Leading Seaman J. Yendell was the live Aunt Sally of the advertisements. He peeped out of a barrel and if you could hit him with a missile you might,—for a fee. Shpt. S. Rennells saw fair play; his chief responsibility being to see that the thrower paid. The "pick-pocket lady" was pickpocketed,—a sort of peripatetic lucky dip. Lieut. Musgrave, R.N., acted the part. Another "sideshow" was Mrs. Olliver's cigarette table which was highly profitable thanks to a generous gift from the B.A.T. Miss Barnes and the Misses Olliver were helpers. There was also a fishpond military sub-stall managed by Scoutmaster White, assisted by Boy Scouts of Murray Troop. Three hundred ten cent toys disappeared in no time.

A little-advertised and fortunately little-needed side show was that devoted to first aid, under the direction of Dr. Alice Hickling, O.B.E., assisted by Mrs. Leigh, Mrs. Rovey, and two members of the Victoria Nursing Association. Having no broken limbs to tie up the experts devoted themselves to tieing up and taking care of parcels.

GIRLS' SCHOOLS' STALLS.

The principal girls' schools of the Colony again made a brave show. Miss Woo had an army of helpers at St. Paul's School stall where one paid a dollar and had a chance of an article worth anything from 35 cents to $25. Miss Clarke, staff and pupils of Belilios had a toy stall and Miss Taylor, staff and pupils of St. Stephen's had a general stall. These stalls were the produce of a great deal of work by the pupils throughout the year.

THE TEA STALL.

As the afternoon wears on there is something peculiarly attractive about the tea stall,—or rather, the tea garden. This was arranged on the lawn and the helpers experienced severe pressure during the hour or so that everyone becomes imbued with the idea that "tea would be a good idea." Home-made cakes, of a splendour never seen in hotels and places where one eats in public, were a much admired feature of the tea stall. An army of workers was on duty, the following being the list:—

Organizer.—Mrs. R. M. Dyer, assisted by Mrs. Hallifax and Miss Wallace.

Tea Making.—Mrs. Goldsmith, Mrs. Bullock, Mrs. Girling, Mrs. Heanley, Mrs. Brotherton Harker, Miss Lowson and Mrs. Wright.

Cake Stand.—Mrs. Digby, Mrs. Earle, Mrs. Fenton, Mrs. H. Matheson, Mrs. Joseph, Mrs. Crawford Morgan, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Shellshear.

Sandwich Stand.—Mrs. McCubbin and Mrs. Hamilton.

Waitresses.—Mrs. Armstrong, Miss Avery, Mrs. Bevan, Mrs. Bevington, Mrs. Black, Mrs. Buckland, Mrs. Biggar, Mrs. Bromfield, Miss Bell, Mrs. Bannerman, Mrs. E. E. Brown, Mrs. Carrie, Mrs. Dennys, Miss Denison, Mrs. Davison, Miss Deakin, Mrs. Fletcher, Mrs. Franks, Miss Fothergill, Mrs. Goodman, Mrs. E. Grimble, Mrs. Gunn, Mrs. Hornell, Mrs. Holt, Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Hedley, Mrs. Hinton, Mrs. E. Howard, the Misses Hazeland, Miss Hickie, Miss Hicking, the Misses Irving, Mrs. Jenkins, Madamd Kremer, Mrs. Leask, Mrs. H. A. Lammert, Miss Logan, Mrs. A. Mackenzie, Mrs. Murdoch, Miss Maclaren, Miss Martin, Miss McAuley, Miss Neave, Mrs. Orton, Mrs. Perry, the Misses Ram, Mrs. Raworth, Mrs. Redmond, Madame Rodenfuser, Miss Rodger, Mrs. Sayer, Miss Summerskill, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. H. Smith, Mrs. Shannon, Mrs. Shiner, Mrs. Tinson, Miss Tassell, Mrs. Williamson.

Ice Cream Stall.—Mrs. R. T. Matheson, Mrs. Butterfield, Miss Matheson, Miss Phelips.

Entrance Tickets.—Miss Innes, Mrs. Lang, Mrs. W. Lang, Mrs. Murray.

Aprons, etc.—Mrs. Denison.

RAFFLES.

The following were the results of the principal raffles:—

PEAK STALL.—Tientsin carpet, Madame Lily (No. 160). Tea service, Mrs. M. Alves (No. 116).

NAVAL STALL.—Blackwood table and chair, Capt. E. H. Bromwich (No. 26). $50 raffle, Mr. W. D. Leslie (No. 144).

MILITARY STALL.—Model yacht, No. 241.

VICTORIA STALL.—Paris Hat, Mrs. Scott (No. 66).

THE FINANCIAL RESULT.

"As far as can be at present ascertained," the total realised from the fête and the activities which have preceded it will closely approximate $20,000. Already $18,000 has been paid to the hon. treasurer, Lady Stuart-Taylor.

THE COMMITTEE'S THANKS.

Although it is too early to make any definite statement as to the financial result of the Bazaar, it is confidently anticipated that the total receipts will constitute a record, and Mrs. Severn, the Acting President, and the Committee desire to take the earliest opportunity of expressing their sincere gratitude to all those, old and young, who have assisted in any way. In particular they wish to thank:—

His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government for opening the Bazaar and for lending the ground of Government House;

The Director of Public Works for advice, Mr. Staples of the P.W.D. for supervising the erection of stalls, and Messrs. Sze Hop for erecting them at a nominal figure;

The Harbour Master and the ships of His Majesty's Navy for lending flags and decorations, Mr. S. P. Leigh and the staff of the Harbour Office for decorating the stalls and grounds, and the officers and men of H.M.S. Tamar, especially Com. Shpt. Crocker, for erecting the model of H.M.S. Tamar for the Naval and Dockyard Stall and for organising all the Naval sideshows;

The Captain Superintendent of Police and the Police under Inspector Marks for controlling the police arrangements in the grounds during the Bazaar, and Inspector Angus for decorating the Police Stall and making the Bran Pie;

The Hon. Mr. E. R. Hallifax for general advice, and for organizing the drawing of raffles, and with the staff of his office, for translating, printing, and distributing Chinese advertisements, posters and placards, and for lending clerical assistance;

The Commodore for drawing the Raffles, and the Hon. Mr. R. W. Bird for acting as auctioneer; the Hongkong Club for lending raffle gear, etc., Major Dauhuz and the N.C.O.'s who assisted at the gate and sideshows, Major Wright and the Officers of the King's Regiment, and Col. Roberts, D.S.O., and the Officers of the 102nd Grenadiers for the services of their regimental Bands;

Mr. Leakin, Custodian Government House, for his excellent management of all the Bazaar arrangements and for his invaluable assistance rendered throughout;

The Cadet Co. of the H.V.D.C. under Major Black and Inspector Davis, for providing the Guard of Honour and the Adjutant of the Corps for the necessary permission;

The Rev. G. T. Waldegrave and the Boy Scouts for help in the grounds, and Miss Irving and the Girl Guides for assistance at the stalls;

Mrs. Olliver, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Collins, Miss Barnes and the Misses Olliver for selling cigarettes during the day, and Mr. Harrison for organizing a pipe raffle;

The Press for their unfailing courtesy, and their kindness in advertising at reduced rates the attractions of the Bazaar, and for much valuable assistance in bringing to the notice of the public the work and aims of the Guild and League;

Messrs. Noronha & Co. for their great generosity in printing large numbers of posters, tickets, notices, etc., gratis, and to Mr. W. Sinclair and the A.D.C. for help in advertising;

Mrs. Bowes-Smith, Miss Benson, the Hon. Mr. H. W. Bird and Mr. George Duncan for Art Posters;

The Peak Tramways Co., The Hongkong Wharf and Godown Co., Messrs. Moutrie, Messrs Wiseman, Ltd., and The Helena May Institute for displaying Art Posters, and the Hongkong Tramway Co. for displaying posters on the Trams Free;

The Hongkong Hotel for lending decorations, assistance with the Naval Dance, and for displaying Art Posters;

The Hongkong Electric Co. for providing the lighting of the Fête and at the Theatre Royal on the occasion of the Vaudeville Entertainment;

The British American Tobacco Co. for a most generous gift of cigarettes and cigars;

Madame Lily for Perfumes; the Sincere Co. for goods; and the Sun Co. and the Wing On Co. for substantial discount on goods purchased;

Taikoo Dock for making all M.C.L. Badges free; Messrs. Der A Wing for gifts of paper; the South China Morning Post for sweet boxes; the Orient Tobacco Co. for cigar boxes, and Messrs. Butterfield & Swire for gifts of paper and candy; and the Italian Convent for the gift of numerous articles.

The following for gifts of articles to be raffled:—Mr. R. L. Bridger, tea service; Mr. R. M. Dyer, pipe; Mr. E. Knight, model yacht; Mr. J. McArthur, Tientsin carpet; Col. Nicholson, shawl; Messrs. Simpson & Keith, another model yacht; and Mrs. Taggart, Paris hat.

The following for organising entertainments:—Mrs. Brisow, Lady Rees-Davies and Mrs. Layton; Lieut.-Commdr. Gilchrist, R.N.; Mr. Pearson and the Easma Club; Captain and Mrs. Crocker and the Officers of H.M. River Gunboats; the Kowloon Dock Work Party; Mrs. Penman and Mrs. Sanders; Mrs. Shenton; Mrs. Purves, Mrs. H. Green, Mrs. Forsyth, Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. Wylie and Mrs. Johnstone; children of Quarry Bay; and the Staff and Girls of St. Stephen's Girls School.

The following for providing sideshows:—Mr. F. R. J. Adams, Col. Butterworth, C.M.G., Mr. and Mrs. George Duncan; Mr. Warner and the members of the Chin Woo Athletic Association (St. Stephen's Branch), Mr. White and children of the Garrison School, Lieut. Wykeham-Musgrave, H.M.S. Ambrose.

The Colonial Secretary's Office, and the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation for lending valuable clerical assistance in the Accounts Office, and Messrs. Thomas Lay, Tsoi Kin Yung, Au Kwok Leung, Ng Pik Shang and Lo Cheuk San and their assistants for checking the receipts of the Bazaar;

And countless other ladies and gentlemen who have given assistance most generously in donations or work to the stalls and to the general funds.

The above list is necessarily incomplete as yet.

MOTOR CAR ACCIDENT ON CASTLE PEAK ROAD.

SEVERAL CHINESE PASSENGERS INJURED.

A motor-car accident took place on the Castle Peak Road, on Friday evening, resulting in several Chinese being injured. The car, No. 626, was proceeding on the road near Chun Lung Tan when one of the rear tyres burst. It skidded and swerved into a ditch by the side of the road and overturned. The occupants were pinned underneath the car. The Indian driver was injured in the back, whilst seven other persons, the family of Mr. Chan Yuen, the proprietor of the Chan Yuen Restaurant, Yaumati, were all more or less badly shaken. One lady was seriously injured, several of her ribs being broken. The police sent out a car and conveyed several of the injured persons to hospital, where they were detained.

INTERPORT TRIALS.

FINAL SELECTIONS FOR THE INTERPORT TEAM.

After play closed on Saturday the Selection Committee announced, after a discussion of about an hour's length that R. E. A. Webster, B. D. Evans, and the Rev. E. Quick had been selected to fill the three places still vacant. Major Matthews was chosen as twelfth man. The result was not entirely unexpected by those who had watched the game. Owen-Hughes failed to get wickets again, though he did not bowl at all badly. He has been rather unlucky in not having had an innings for some time. However, it is a fairly safe prophecy that if he remains in the Colony he will become one of our best Interport players in the future. To de Rome, too, sympathy must be extended. But upon the whole it must be conceded that it would be hard to select a better side. But if we only had a Bird! Mr. R. E. O. Bird has now retired from cricket. He played first in 1903 and when available, was with one exception invariably selected from that date until 1920 when, by way of a coping-stone on his career he did the hat-trick against Shanghai. His left-hand bowling will be sadly missed, and neither Owen-Hughes, nor Lammert at present bowl well enough for inclusion. The team then is:—

H. R. B. Hancock (capt.).
T. E. Pearce.
Capt. Havelock-Davies, R.G.A.
Capt. C. O. Olliver, R.G.A.
E. B. Reed.
L. J. Davies.
G. R. Sayer.
C. J. Stapleton.
R. E. A. Webster.
B. D. Evans.
Rev. E. Quick.

And to these players we all tender our best wishes for their success.

SATURDAY'S GAME.

Saturday's game started at 1.50, the sides being:—

Pearce's XI.—T. E. Pearce, Capt. Olliver, Rev. E. Quick, C. J. Stapleton, A. E. Wood, Major Matthews, G. R. Sayer, Capt. Spinks, Captain Dods, A. L. Gace and E. G. Lammert.

Hancock's XI.—R. Hancock, Capt. Havelock-Davies, E. B. Reed, H. Owen-Hughes, L. J. Davies, R. E. A. Webster, B. D. Evans, C. F. Alexander, A. A. Rumjahn, F. J. de Rome and U. Omar.

Thus, roughly speaking, it was batsmen v. bowlers. The light was excellent until towards the end, but the wicket soon began to crumble, especially at the Naval Yard end.

Pearce and Olliver opened to the bowling of Reed and Havelock-Davies from their usual ends. The latter was coming down very fast, but Pearce got everything just short of a length nicely away to leg for singles. Reed was treated with great respect by the batsmen, especially, Pearce, who had been dropped in the slips off his first over. The chance was a very difficult one, and Havelock-Davies seemed to be unsighted by the wicket-keeper. As the result of half an hour's play 40 was hoisted. The fielding was excellent, Alexander at point being especially smart. No wicket fell, however, and at 47 Owen-Hughes relieved Reed at the Law Courts end and at 51 Evans went on for Havelock-Davies. Olliver put his first two balls away prettily for four, one on each side of cover, and got him away again the next over. If Evans had not wasted a man at long leg and had had an extra cover, all these fours ought to have been saved, and later he changed the field accordingly. If a medium fast bowler bowls so many leg balls as to require a long-leg it seems there is an obvious course! Evans does come with his arm a little at times and seldom pitches that ball wide of the leg stick.

At 70 Olliver retired with an excellent 40 to his credit (the umpire signalled byes when he actually was dropped at the wicket off Havelock-Davies). Quick came in but did not stay long, being bowled by a half-volley from Evans which he turned into a yorker. Webster came on for Owen-Hughes with Stapleton batting and at 121 Pearce retired for 53. Barring the one chance he had played very nice cricket. Wood came in and got two fours off Alexander's first over—but both should have been stopped in the field. He made a beautiful off-drive of the same bowler's next over, the ball travelling very fast and all along the carpet. He then proceeded to hit Webster clean over the pavilion (very nearly picking off a passing tram!) but in trying to repeat the same stroke he got too much underneath it and was well caught by Reed near the screen. He got his 19 in about five minutes. Four for 147. Matthews came in and hit Alexander for four past extra cover. Stapleton meanwhile was playing his usual stylish cricket, his work on the leg side being particularly pretty. At 166 Omar went on for Alexander but Webster effected the separation, getting Stapleton l.b.w. for 30 at 171. The batsman evidently made up his mind the ball was not going to hit the wicket. Stapleton's great weakness seems to be that he cannot tell if a ball is or is not on his leg stump. He always plays with his pads in front of his middle and leg stumps.

With Sayer in things grew very quiet. Reed resumed for Webster at 179, while de Rome went on at the Naval Yard end. At 189 Sayer skied one to mid-on and was well taken by Alexander. Then Reed damaged his hand trying to take a hot return Matthews and Owen-Hughes went on. Spinks hit Havelock-Davies to long-leg for four and later Matthews turned Owen-Hughes, who had got very short, nicely to leg twice. With the score at 211 the innings was declared closed, Matthews being not out 26, and Spinks not out 7.

Rumjahn and de Rome started to Dods and Lammert and off the latter's third ball de Rome was dropped at backward-point, a hard left-handed chance low down. Rumjahn hooked Dods for four, but next over let out at Lammert and was well caught and bowled. Webster then came in. De Rome played some very nice shots from Dods who was erratic in length and went off in favour of Spinks, whom Webster proceeded to lift into the pavilion. A yard shorter and he would have been probably caught by Pearce. Both men showed confidence and began to let out a little. At 72 Quick went on at the Law Courts end and de Rome mis-hit his third ball and was secured by Spinks at extra cover. He had been lucky at times but he played some excellent shots. Evans filled the vacancy and Sayer went on for Lammert. The light as usual began to fail about 5.30. In spite of this Webster began to hit the ball very hard and Evans left nothing loose unpunished.

Space forbids a detailed consideration of the team here but some notes will appear later on the eleven generally and upon its members.

TWO PUBLIC HOLIDAYS THIS WEEK.

FRIDAY DECLARED AS WELL AS ARMISTICE DAY.

It is notified in the Gazette that H.E. the Officer Administering the Government in Council has appointed Friday, November 10th, to be observed as a General Holiday in addition to Saturday, November 11th, Armistice Day.

THE TWO MINUTES' SILENCE.

It is also announced that His Majesty the King has expressed his wish that on Armistice Day, November 11th, there should be complete suspension of normal business during two minutes' silence commencing at 11 a.m.

H.E. the Officer Administering the Government trusts that on a signal being given by the firing of a gun on Murray Parade ground at 11 o'clock all normal business will be suspended in the Colony and two minutes' silence observed by the community.

His Excellency has also been pleased to give instructions that the special services to be held in places of public worship in the Colony on Armistice Day are occasions on which those entitled to do so are invited to wear uniform or medals and decorations in plain clothes.

"POPPY DRIVE."

Good progress has been made with the arrangements for the "Poppy Drive" which is to take place on Armistice Day with the object of assisting Earl Haig's fund for distressed ex-servicemen at home. Some thousands of dainty little artificial poppies have been made locally and these are to be sold in the streets and auctioned in the clubs. A number of ladies have come forward with offers of assistance in connection with the street sale but still more helpers are required. Mr. A. H. K. Cobb, of the Union Insurance Society of Canton, is acting as hon. secretary of the organising committee.

INTERPORT GOLF.

HONGKONG SERVICES WIN AGAINST MANILA TEAM.

PROSPECTS FOR THE INTERPORT MATCH ON WEDNESDAY.

The Manila Interport Golf team arrived in Hongkong on Saturday night and played their first match at Fanling, yesterday, against a team drawn from the Services. Unfortunately the s.s. President Pierce which was due to arrive here on Saturday morning at 8'clock did not arrive until Saturday evening so that the Manila team had no time for a practice round at Fanling, as it was intended they should before playing their match yesterday.

The Manila team has seven representatives and one spare man, and is considered a fairly representative team, although one or two of their best players were unable to make the trip. On arrival in Hongkong the team motored out to Fanling where they stayed the night.

The Manila team chosen to play the Services yesterday morning was as follows:—Messrs. J. R. H. Mason, John Grieve, G. Todd, A. D. Gibbs, F. L. Manderfeld and E. J. Nell.

The Services team was represented by:—Major Gandy, Capt. Cummings, Capt. Bloxham, Lieut. Bacon, Lieut. Sheffield, R.N., and Lieut. Sparkes, R.N.

It was an ideal day for golf and the course was in good condition. The first couple to drive off were Capt. Cummings and Mr. John Grieve. These two players had a very close game and finished all square. Capt. Cummings was round in 78 and Mr. Grieve in 79. The latter's performance, considering it was his first round on the Course, was a very creditable one.

Major Gandy was in very good form, playing very steadily. He beat Mr. Gibbs by 5 and 4.

Lieut. Bacon beat his opponent, Mr. Manderfeld by 2 up.

Capt. Bloxham beat Mr. Nell by 3 and 1.

Lieut. Sheffield beat Mr. Mason by 4 and 2, and Lieut. Sparkes was all square with Mr. Todds. Thus at tiffin time the Services were leading 4 points to nothing.

THE FOUR BALL FOURSOMES.

In the four-ball foursomes in the afternoon Major Gandy and Lieut. Sheffield beat Messrs. Mason and Grieve on the last green. This match was a particularly hard fought one and the Manila pair were leading most of the way and should have won.

Capt. Cummings and Lieut. Sparkes beat Messrs. Gibbs and Nell by 4 and 3.

Capt. Bloxham and Lieut. Bacon were beaten by 2 up and 1 to play by Messrs. Todd and Manderfeld, this being the only match the Manila team won.

Although on paper the Services won the match very comfortably it is hardly fair to judge the chances of the Manila men when they come to play the Interport team on Wednesday next, as they were all new to the course and no doubt were still feeling the effects of their sea trip. They are staying out at Fanling and have Monday and Tuesday for practice and with the experience they will gain they should give the Hongkong team a very hard fight. The majority of the Manila team are seasoned players and accustomed to playing in important matches and should not suffer from nerves.

THE GENERAL ELECTION CAMPAIGN.

If the results of the recent municipal elections in England form any guide to what is to happen to Labour candidates at the Parliamentary general election, which takes place next week, then there is no likelihood of the electorate putting a Labour Government into power. But it is well to remember that the circumstances in a municipal and a parliamentary election—especially such a parliamentary election as the one now impending—are not identical. In a municipal election it is usually a straight fight between the Labour candidate and "Moderate" candidate. In the coming Parliamentary election there are four parties appealing for the suffrages of the electors—Conservatives, National Liberals, Independent Liberals, and the Labour candidates. In the coming election there are no fewer than 399 Labour candidates in the field. It is obvious that in constituencies where there are three candidates of different shades of politics, for a seat, there is always the possibility that the splitting up of the votes between Conservative, National Liberal and Independent Liberal may only serve to let in the Labour candidate. The Labour vote is likely to be a solid vote. There is everything in the national policy of the Labour Party likely to appeal to the Labour electorate, and nothing to cause dissension unless the opposition can convince the workers that a levy on capital would have a disastrous effect on trade and throw thousands out of employment. Recognising the need of lightening the deadweight burden of the National Debt, the Labour party proposes the creation of a War Debt Redemption Fund by a special graduated levy on fortunes exceeding £5,000, a revised system of taxation for revenue purposes, an increase in death duties on large incomes, income-tax relief for low incomes, and advocates the taxation of land values. What can appeal to the wage-earner more powerfully than this? The Party's unemployment policy involves the national organisation of industry, and the manifesto speaks of a large programme of public works being necessary. The rural policy provides for the restoration of the Agricultural Wages Board and the establishment of Agricultural Councils to promote agricultural interests. The Industry policy involves the prompt nationalisation of mines and railways.

The policy of the Conservative Party is a negative one. Mr. BONAR LAW has laid it down as the keynote of his policy that the best way of assisting the recovery of the country and the world from the effects of the war is "to leave free play to individual initiative and to avoid attempts at social improvement, which at another time might be very desirable." The National Liberals have nothing to tempt the Labour vote, and the "ten-point programme" of the Independent Liberals, with its unqualified support of Free Trade, and repeal of protective measures; political and legal liability for women and men; land system reform, including taxation of land values; democratic reform of the licensing system; and proportional representation, is not likely to make the same appeal to the ranks of labour as the Labour policy of a levy on capital. Mr. LLOYD GEORGE's latest speech is a strong plea for the creation of a Centre Party in the new Parliament—a party apparently with a policy no more definite than Mr. BONAR LAW's party. It is quite clear that Mr. LLOYD GEORGE does not expect the election to be won by his party. He is looking to it to form in the new Parliament that "strong group of independent men, free from Party ties, and strong enough to insist on the Government steering a middle course, clear from extremes of subversion and reaction." Mr. WINSTON CHURCHILL, from his sick bed, a week ago, issued an address to the electors of Dundee in which he said he disapproved of the suggestion for the creation of a Centre Party, and he stands as a Liberal Free Trader. At the same time he "takes up his stand alongside Mr. LLOYD GEORGE"—that was before Mr. LLOYD GEORGE came out so strongly in favour of the creation of a Centre Party—and Mr. CHURCHILL referred in scathing terms to the ex-Premier's "quondam friends who are now his opponents." If Mr. CHURCHILL continues to disapprove of a Centre Party, which Mr. LLOYD GEORGE is now advocating, it looks as if we may have to add another great name to the list of the ex-Premier's quondam friends who have become his opponents!

Dr. W. B. A. Moore has been elected a Fellow of the Royal Colonial Institute.

The name of Mr. Gerald Davidson has been added to the Colony's list of authorized architects.

The lecture advertised to be given in St. Andrew's Church Hall to-night has been cancelled.—ADVT.

New postal rates to French settlements of Oceania and New Caledonia are published in the Government Gazette.

H.M.S. Dimnede, a new light cruiser, was commissioned with a Portsmouth crew last month for service on the China Station.

Capt. T. Arthur, of the firm of Messrs. Goddard & Douglas, marine surveyors, returns to the Colony by the City of Paris to-day.

Vice-Admiral Sir Arthur Leveson, Lady Leveson, and the two Misses Leveson arrived by the P. & O. Karmala on Saturday.

Mr. H. B. L. Dowbiggin has been appointed a member of the Court of the Hongkong University for a further term of three years.

An announcement is made in to-day's advertisements respecting the dance at the City Hall on Armistice night, arranged by the British Legion.

The total output of the Kailan Mining Administration's mines for the week ending October 21st amounted to 80,110 tons and the sales to 52,405 tons.

There will be a Musicale at the Helena May Institute on Thursday next, Nov. 9th, at 5.30 p.m. for members and their friends. The price of tickets, which should be obtained beforehand from the Secretary, is fifty cents each.—ADVT.

Armed robbers entered a grocer's shop shop in Main Street, Shaukiwan East, on Friday night. The accountant, who was counting the cash at the time, was held up at the point of a revolver. Two of the robbers snatched $73 in cash from the counter. The whole incident took less than a minute, and after seizing the money the robbers disappeared in double-quick time.

Sir Paul and Lady Chater, who had been staying for a time in Paris, returned to London early in October. They subsequently left for Hongkong, vid Canada. They are passengers across the the Pacific by the Empress of Canada.

Among residents who returned to the Colony on Saturday from England by the P. & O. steamer Karmala were Mrs. Justice Gompertz and Mrs. Gompertz, the Hon. Mr. H. E. Pollock, K.C., and Mrs. Pollock, Dr. W. B. A. and Mrs. Moore, and Mr. L. M. Whyte.

The next Gymkhana at Happy Valley is advertised to be held on Saturday, November 18th. An addition to the usual advertisement will be noted in the intimation that each member has the right of introducing two non-members to the enclosure on tickets previously obtained from the Secretary at $5 each. The charge admission to the public enclosure remains at one dollar.

Mr. John S. Gardiner, Surveyor to "Lloyd's Register," leaves by the Fushimi Maru on the 8th inst., after having served in Hongkong during the period of the greatest shipbuilding activity the Colony has ever experienced. He arrived in May 1918, and has represented "Lloyd's in the classification requirements of that Institution" of twelve standard ships, 4 oil-tankers, 8 tugs, innumerable damage surveys, salvage and special survey work, and has won the highest regard of the entire shipbuilding and shipping community by his never-failing courtesy and first-class technical knowledge. Mr. Gardiner first served in London in 1911-12; thence he went to Antwerp (1912-14), Middlesboro' (1915), Chicago (1916-17), New York and Boston (1917-18) and Hongkong (1918-22). On account of indifferent health, from which he has been suffering these past 18 months, he is returning to the Head Office, London, in which he is held in very high esteem. Mr. Gardiner leaves a large number of friends, both business and social, who will wish him a complete return to health and every success in his future career. Mr. Walter Lang succeeds him in charge of "Lloyd's Register" locally, and comes with a good record. He is ably assisted by Mr. Morrison.

THE NEW ADMIRAL ARRIVES.

The new Commander-in-Chief of the China Naval Station, Admiral Sir Arthur Leveson, K.C.B., arrived on Saturday morning by the s.s. Karmala. He was accompanied by Lady Leveson and his two daughters.

The staff officers who arrived with the Admiral were:—

Capt. A. H. Alington (Chief of staff and Captain of the Hawkins.
Pay-Comdr. R. S. Thursfield, C.M.G. (Secretary).
Lieut. A. T. G. C. Peachey (Flag-Lieutenant).
Lieut. G. P. Money.
Pay-Lieut. W. McBride.
Pay-Lieut. S. T. Beardsworth.
Comdr. W. R. C. Tait, M.V.O. (new Commander of the Hawkins).
Comdr. J. W. Clayton (new fleet navigating officer).

Admiral Sir Arthur Leveson will take over the Command when Admiral Sir Alexander Duff, K.C.B., leaves for Home by the s.s. Dongola.

Sir Arthur formerly commanded the 2nd Battle Squadron at the Battle of Jutland and was mentioned in despatches. He was later awarded the K.C.B. for his services in the war.

SHOOTING AFFRAY IN A TEA-HOUSE.

PAINTING CONTRACTOR CHARGED.

The painting contractor, Wan Ko, who had recently figured in the Courts as the complainant in an attempted murder case and who is now under arrest for having been concerned in a more recent shooting affair at the Sam Yuen tea-house, Queen's Road Central, on Nov. 1st, was charged before Mr. E. W. Hamilton at the Magistracy, on Saturday on two counts: (1) with wounding a man named Chang Wo; and, (2) shooting the same person with intent to kill.

Mr. A. E. Hall appeared for the prosecution, and Mr. H. L. Dennys represented the accused. Mr. E. D. C. Wolfe watched the case for the police.

Mr. Dennys applied for bail.

In reply to the Magistrate, Mr. Wolfe said that he did not think the complainant was in any serious danger but according to the medical certificate, it would be unsafe for the complainant to appear in Court until November 27th. From that it would appear he was making satisfactory progress towards recovery.

The Magistrate formally remanded the case until Thursday next fixing bail in the sum of $3,000, $1,000 in cash and two sureties of $1,000 each, to be approved by the police.

GARDEN ROAD.

A week has passed o'er Garden Road
And still I live, I live.
Each morn I tripped down Garden Road,
Each eve I lurched up Garden Road,
They hunted me on Garden Road,
I cussed the name of Garden Road,
But still I live, I live!

So Praises to the "shuvvers" who have missed me in their flight,
And Thanks to the Electric Co., whose light made bright each night,
And Glory to the Powers, who "consider" every day;
Who never walk up Garden Road, but motor all the way;
And hope we shall not all be killed, but live—our tax to pay.

THE HOME ELECTION.

LLOYD GEORGE'S PLEA FOR A CENTRE PARTY.

LONDON, November 4th.

A feature of Mr. Lloyd George's speech, at a demonstration in the London Opera House, at which Mr. Chamberlain, and Lord Birkenhead also spoke, was a strong plea for the creation of a centre party in the new Parliament. Mr. Lloyd George said: "You want a strong group of independent men, free from party ties and strong enough to insist on the Government steering a middle course, clear from the extremes of subversion and reaction."

He counselled his supporters that, wherever there was a pact they should abide by it loyally, and in constituencies where there was no pact, to support the candidate who was prepared to put country before party, and to resist alike fundamental changes and reaction.

PARTY NOMINATIONS.

LONDON, November 4th.

Nominations closed to-day.

Thirty-seven Conservatives, seven National Liberals, five Liberals, three Labourites and one Nationalist have been, up to the present, returned unopposed; they include Mr. Lloyd George, Mr. Douglas M. Hogg (Attorney-General), and Mr. W. G. A. Ormsby Gore (Under Secretary for the Colonies).

The surprise nomination was that of the Irish Nationalist, Mr. Devlin, who was nominated for Liverpool, against no Conservative, Mr. Leslie Scott, K.C.

MR. BONAR LAW AT LEEDS.

LONDON, November 4th.

Mr. Bonar Law, speaking at Leeds, denied that the new Government was hostile to Ireland; on the contrary, they wished success to the present rulers, who would find that, their word was their bond.

DIFFICULTIES OF FOREIGN POLICY.

He dwelt on the appalling difficulties of foreign policy and the success of the Near East Conference, on which peace in the Balkans and the prevention of indescribable horror depended. This would only be possible if co-operation with France and Italy were the root of our policy. He expressed confidence that the Unionists would have a big majority.

TRADE WITHIN THE EMPIRE.

Proceeding, he said: "A capital levy would be madness in the present position of the country. He would be unable to send invitations to the proposed Imperial economic conference, until after the elections. The Empire would always be our best customer, and he hoped the conference would result not merely in greater co-operation, but also in greater trade. It would be found, as regards unemployment, that there were schemes ready to develop within the Empire, in which the Dominions would co-operate, and would not expect us to pay the whole price."

THE NEAR EAST.

He had been bombarded with requests to make a promise that we would clear out of Mesopotamia and Palestine, but all he could say was that, he would examine the matter most carefully, but, we were obliged to consider not merely what would pay, but to what extent we were bound by obligations. The Government would certainly try to give the League of Nations scope for more effective action.

NATIONAL DANGERS.

Discussing the question of defence, Mr. Law referred to possibilities, like air dangers, surpassing sea dangers. He therefore refused to make definite promises, for if we cannot restore the industrial position of the country, no amount of fighting force would save us from ruin.

EARLIER CABLES.

HOW THE CANDIDATES STAND.

RELATIONS OF CONSERVATIVES AND NATIONAL LIBERALS.

LONDON, November 3rd.

There are now 1,370 candidates for the General Election, comprising 465 Conservatives, 170 National Liberals, 415 Labour, and 320 Independent Liberals. About seventy candidates are unopposed. The returns are expected to-morrow, Nomination Day, when, according to the evening newspapers, the number of National Liberal candidates will have appreciably increased, as the result of the eleventh-hour decision of Mr. Lloyd George to throw in his reserves in the battle. Meanwhile, Mr. Lloyd George, who is much better, speaks at the Stoll Picture House, London, to-morrow.

THE FIRST NEW MEMBERS.

The first election to the new Parliament took place to-day, when Sir Henry Craik, and Sir George Berry (Conservatives), and Mr. D. M. Cowen (National Liberal) were returned unopposed to the three seats of the combined Scottish Universities.

LITTLE SYMPATHY FOR LABOUR.

LONDON, November 3rd.

Little sympathy with labour is expressed in the editorials on the Municipal election results, the Independent Liberal organs joining with the Conservatives in declaring that the débacle is the penalty of alarmist speeches and manifestoes. But all do not agree that the results can be regarded as foreshadowing the decision of the Parliamentary voters, which frequently in the past has conflicted with Municipal pollings. Nevertheless, the rout of the Socialists may affect the relations of the Conservatives and the National Liberals, whose headquarters are most gratified at the results.

The National Liberals emphasise the moral of the success gained by a combination of the moderate parties, and question Mr. Lloyd George's contemplated reprisals against the Conservatives, which were reconsidered by the ex-Premier and his colleagues last evening. A decision was postponed.

IMPENDING U.S.A. ELECTIONS

LIKELY REDUCTION OF REPUBLICAN MAJORITY.

WASHINGTON, November 3rd.

Speculation is rife regarding the results of the impending elections. It is generally agreed that the present unwieldly Republican majority in Congress will be materially reduced, likewise, that the reduced Republican majority will include elements dangerously subversive to party discipline, the tendency being to replace ultra-Conservatives by Liberals and Radicals.

POLITICAL REVOLUTION PREDICTED.

WASHINGTON, November 3rd.

When speaking at Spokane, Senator Borah suggested that the time had arrived for a new alignment of the political forces. He declared that a political revolution was now going on among the people who were determined to have relief, and if the Republicans did not alter their economic policy, a third party, called the People's Party, will surely sweep the United States in 1924.

EX-KAISER'S WEDDING ARRANGEMENTS.

OPPOSITION BY INHABITANTS OF DOORN.

DOORN, November 3rd.

An army of journalists, photographers and cinematographers are besieging Doorn Castle, where the finishing touches are being put on the preparations for the ex-Kaiser's wedding, which takes place to-morrow.

The civil ceremony will be conducted by the Burgomaster, in a room at the lodge, decorated with red tapestries. This will be followed by the religious ceremony, to be held in the vestibule of the castle, where a specially built throne has been erected The banquet will be held in the adjoining hall, strewn with red roses, at which fifty guests, including the ex-Crown Prince, Prince Henry and other members of the Hohenzollern family will be present.

Princess Hermines bridal dress will be of mauve velvet and chiffon, with the train adorned with Rhine stones and sequins. The ex-Kaiser will be attired in a guard's uniform.

The inhabitants of Doorn, disapproving of Sunday marriages, adhere to their refusal of the ex-Kaiser's request, to ring the village bells. The honeymoon will be spent at the Castle.

German Socialists are agitating for the prevention of the export of a costly diamond tiara, which the ex-Kaiser ordered in Berlin, as a present for the bride.

MARK FLUCTUATIONS.

THE MARK PRACTICALLY VALUELESS.

LONDON, November 3rd.

Marks were quoted at 28,000 to 29,000 to £1. The market was not excited at the drop, for the reason that the rate has ceased to function properly, and the smallest transactions are exaggerated in effect. Marks closed at about 26,000, and French francs at 65.

STABILISATION PROPOSALS.

BERLIN, November 3rd

Stockbrokers are unable to cope with orders and are forced to close their offices. Prices continue to soar, principally on account of heavy buying on foreign account.

Herr Stinne's organs are already talking of the obvious failure of the reparation negotiations. Bankers attribute the fall of the mark to the action of buyers of marks abroad investing their holdings in German stocks, in preference to converting them into dollars and sterling.

The public are anxiously awaiting details of the stabilisation proposals, which Germany submitted at to-day's meeting of the Reparation Conference.

BELGIUM'S EXPRESSION OF THANKS.

TO MR. HOOVER.

BRUSSELS, November 4th.

A Ministerial Committee has been formed to consider plans for expressing thanks to Mr. Hoover, for the work of organising the feeding of residents in occupied Belgium, during wartime.

The committee announces that a piece of sculpture, representing the Goddess Isis, veiled, will be presented to him, to be placed in the Leland Stanford University of California.

BRITISH BUDDHIST MISSION.

REFUSED PERMISSION TO VISIT LHASSA.

LONDON, November 4th.

The governing body of the Delhi Tibetan Government have refused permission for the British Buddhist Mission to visit Lhassa.

[A cable message, dated July 8th, stated that a British Buddhist Mission would shortly leave London, with the object of studying customs, religion, language and monastic literature in Thibet. Some of the mission were already on their way to India.]

LATEST CABLES.

TURKS DIFFER AMONG THEMSELVES.

UNEASINESS IN CONSTANTINOPLE.

CONSTANTINOPLE, November 3rd.

The decision of Angora relative to the Sultanate, has caused consternation amongst all sober minded Turks, as it is a blow at the deepest-rooted traditions of the Nation which, it is believed, is liable to damage the prestige of the Khalifate in the eyes of the entire Moslem world. It is felt that the extremists at Angora have carried the day, and Turks are asking themselves where these ruthless innovations will end.

EXPULSION DECREE CRITICISED.

The order for the expulsion of all Christians is also causing serious misgivings, as they are not only traders, but also artisans. Practically all skilled labour is supplied by Greeks and Armenians.

INDIAN CALIPHATE PARTY ALARMED.

ALLAHABAD, November 4th.

Kemal Pasha's attitude towards the Sultan has undoubtedly created consternation in the Indian Caliphate Party. One Hindu newspaper asks whether it is now intended to send the proposed Indian Angora Legion to fight against Angora.

NO CONSTANTINOPLE DELEGATES TO ATTEND CONFERENCE.

CONSTANTINOPLE, November 3rd.

The Grand Vizier has informed the High Commissioners that the Constantinople Government has decided not to send a delegation to the Lausanne Conference.

KEMALIST GOVERNOR IN CONSTANTINOPLE.

CONSTANTINOPLE November 4th.

The Cabinet has resigned. Acting on instructions from Angora, Rafet Pasha, the Governor of Thrace, has assumed the Governorship of Constantinople, thus marking the first step in the Kemalist control of Constantinople.

EARLIER CABLES.

ANGORA ASSEMBLY DETHRONES SULTAN.

FRANCE CHANGES HER ATTITUDE.

CONSTANTINOPLE, November 3rd.

The Angora Government announces that it considers null and void all Treaties and Conventions concluded since March 16th, 1920, by the Constantinople Administration.

The National Assembly further decided the new Khalif should be elected after selection by an Ecclesiastical Commission, the Assembly thus abolishing the law of succession of the senior male member of the Imperial family. An important Council of Ministers and Dignitaries is meeting in the Palace this morning under the presidency of the Sultan, to consider the situation arising from the decisions of the Assembly.

AN INTERESTING SUMMARY.

LONDON, November 3rd.

The latest revolutionary change decreed by the Angora Assembly, is regarded as a striking comment on the pro-Kemalist agitation in India and elsewhere, which is ostensibly based on a desire to restore full sovereignty to the Sultan as Caliph, whereas the law just passed apparently amounts not only to the dethronement of Mohammed the Sixth, but the deprivation from his not-yet appointed successor of all except religious powers as Caliph and the perpetual retention of the Government in the hands of the National Assembly. There are indications that some of the more conservative elements in the Assembly offered strong opposition in the course of a stormy debate, but the views of Kemal and other powerful leaders evidently carried the day. The news accentuates the increasing interest being focussed on Near Eastern affairs, on the eve of the Lausanne Conference.

The Constantinople and Angora Governments have not yet come to an agreement on the question of the former being represented at Lausanne, to which Angora vigorously objects. The Allies are inclined to leave the Turks to settle the point themselves.

FRANCE'S CHANGE OF ATTITUDE.

Meanwhile, there has been a striking change in the attitude of France, which is urging Britain to join in strong representations to Angora, relative to the alleged surreptitious enrolment of a large force in East Trace, presumably on pretext of policing purposes in violation of the Mudania Agreement, the terms of which the Allies are determined to see observed. The British High Commissioner has been instructed to investigate the matter. The French are also uneasy regarding the repercussion on French interests of the general anti-foreign policy which the Kemalists are pursuing and the far-reaching demands which the Kemalists are credited with the intention of presenting at Lausanne, where it is hoped that the Anglo-French will be enabled to take a common line of action as the result of negotiations now proceeding in Paris and London.

ITALIAN AFFAIRS.

PARIS AMBASSADOR'S REPLY.

ROME, November 3rd.

Replying to Signor Mussolini, Signor Sforza says his decision to resign is solely due to his anxiety to remove difficulties in the path of the new Government and is irrevocable, but he is ready to remain in Paris pending the arrival of his successor and to represent Italy at the Lausanne Conference. Signor Mussolini has requested Signor Sforza to come to Rome immediately. A Paris message says Signor Sforza is leaving for Rome this evening.

LATEST CABLES.

INDIAN NON-CO-OPERATION MOVEMENT.

MALCONTENTS' DIVIDED OPINION

BOMBAY, November 4th.

The sub-committee, which toured India to report on non-co-operation, have returned from their tour of the country. They report that the country is not prepared to embark on mass civil disobedience, but favours disobedience on a limited scale. They support the abandonment of the boycott on Legislatures, Governmental and Educational Institutions, and the Law Courts. The sub-committee are every divided regarding participation in Legislatures. Half favour capturing the Legislatures, with a view to obstructing and paralysing the Government, while the remainder oppose the abandonment of the boycott, as this would involve a serious setback to the movement.

OPPOSITION TO GHANDI'S OPINION.

The sub-committee urge the organisation of Indian labour, with a view to preventing economic exploitation by capitalists and foreigners. The majority oppose Gandhi's opinion, by favouring the boycott of British goods only, as against a general boycott on foreign goods.

RUBBER RESTRUCTION COMMITTEE.

REPRESENTATIVES APPOINTED.

LONDON, November 2nd.

The Colonial Office notifies that Sir E. Birch, representing the Rubber Growers' Association of British Malaya; Mr. T. C. Owen, Ceylon Rubber Growers' Association; Mr. Eric Miller and Sir Edward Rosling, of the Rubber Growers' Association; and Lieut.-Colonel Sealy Clarke, British Rubber Tyre Manufacturers' Association, have been nominated to serve for one year on the advisory committee proposed in the Stevenson committee's report. The Indiarubber Manufacturers' Association have also been invited to nominate a representative. Sir Edward L. Brockman will serve as agent for the Malay States Information Agency. Sir James Stevenson will be Chairman and Sir Gilbert Grindle Vice-Chairman of the committee which will advise the Colonial Secretary on matters referred to it, but they will have no executive powers.

AUSTRALIAN SHIPBUILDING.

SUGGESTION BY HIGH COMMISSIONER.

LONDON, November 4th.

In the course of a speech in London, Sir Joseph Cook, referring to the Australian Prime Minister's recent declaration that he would not build more ships for Australia, suggested that British shipbuilders should take their works to Australia, and there build the ships Australia wanted.

[Mr. Hughes, Prime Minister of Australia, while denying that the Federal Government is negotiating for the sale of Cockatoo Island Dockyard, admits that two offers have been received, of which that of Mr. Albert Green, member for Derby of the British House of Commons, of £1,500,000, on behalf of an English combination, is the better.]

BABOON IN BABYLON.

N.Y. FASHIONABLE SUBURB TERRORISED.

NEW YORK, November 4th.

Search parties are hunting for a big baboon, in the vicinity of the fashionable suburb of Babylon, Long Island. The animal was first seen peering from the windows of an abandoned house. A CAR THAT DID NOT STOP.

DRIVER CHARGED WITH MANSLAUGHTER.

Arising out of a fatal motor-car accident on October 22nd on the main road at Un Long village in the New Territory, when an old woman, aged 84 years, was knocked down by a motor-car which did not stop, a chauffeur, named To Chi Keung, was charged before Mr. Lindsell, at the Magistracy, on Saturday, with manslaughter.

At the time of the accident the police had but little to go upon in their investigations but enquiries led to the arrest of the defendant who was the driver of car No. 166, owned by Mr. E. V. M. R. de Sousa. The old woman died as the result of her injuries in the Kwong Wah Hospital on October 29th.

Traffic Inspector Garrod asked for a formal remand in the case, which was granted, bail being fixed at $1,000.

FAR EASTERN CABLE NEWS.

CLUB v. KOWLOON

Played on the Club ground before a fair number of spectators. The home team made one change in their side, Mair turning out in place of the captain, McPhail. The Club kicked off and immediately pressed on the right but Purvis sent behind. The Club returned and Begg shot over the bar from a good position. Kowloon transferred and forced a corner but the chance was lost through the ball being sent behind from the flag kick. From the goal kick the Club went away and after Townsend had saved from Forsyth, Purvis returned, but shot wide. After a bout in midfield Kowloon got away and forced a corner which was cleared, Begg started a promising attack for the Club, and Knight was forced to concede a corner. Townsend cleared from the flag kick and Kowloon broke away but Isreal headed clear. The Club returned to the attack and England, after putting in a good run down the wing, sent the ball behind. The same player came in again but delayed his centre and Wheeler cleared. The Club were now pressing but the Kowloon defence was sound and Townsend used good judgment in running out to clear from a rush by the Club forwards. Kowloon transferred and Rodger was called upon to clear his charge which he did in good style. King sent Millard away on the right, but the latter let the ball run over the line. King received from the goal kick and sent out to Coombes and Rodger cleared from the centre. King returned with a long shot, the ball just missing the upright. England was sent away on the wing and, putting a well placed centre no one was up to accept, Kowloon cleared. King gave Millard a good pass and the latter centered. Donovan, in attempting to clear, gave a corner. The flag kick was well placed but Mason sent the ball straight to Rodger, who cleared. The Club took the ball down and England forced a corner off Knight. Morrison clearing from the resulting flag kick. Moore returned with a long shot that went wide. King sent Coombes away but Rodger easily cleared from the centre and neat work by Mason and Brown brought the ball in and Donovan cleared. Offside against the Club spoilt a good movement and later Valentine got possession, but no one was up to receive his pass and Townsend cleared. The Club returned and Wheeler cleared from a shot by England. Mair stopped a rush by the left wing, but King sent Coombes forward again who ended up by shooting behind. Good work on the left wing nearly ended with the Club's downfall, for Rodger failed to hold a shot from Coombes, but the goalkeeper quickly recovered and pushed the ball out to Dovonan who cleared. The Club transferred play and England skied the ball over the bar from a good position. The Club were pulled up for offside when in a good position, but soon came back and Townsend was forced out to clear from a centre by England. Brown sent Millard away on the right, and, the latter running in gave Rodger a hot one to hold which he did and cleared to midfield. Valentine missed a good opening by sending the ball wide of the posts from close range. Coombes, receiving from King, went down the wing but stumbled and Donovan cleared. The Club pressed, but offside play relieved. Following clever headwork Donovan sent England away and that player running in forced a corner. Begg, getting his head to the ball from the flag kick, sent it goalwards and Townsend saved well. Isrnel cleared from a rush on the Kowloon left and at the other end Valentine forced a corner. Purvis shooting behind from the flag kick. The interval arrived with a blank sheet.

From a centre kick Kowloon took up the attack and King tested Rodger which the goalkeeper cleared, but Mason returned and Hall forced a corner for Kowloon which was cleared. The Club then took up the attack and Purvis sent over a well-judged centre and Begg shot hard but Townsend cleared well. England returned and Begg headed in wide. Kowloon transferred and Millard sent over from the right for Rodger to clear and play was soon back in the Kowloon quarter. Valentine got close in and gave to Begg who shot wide from an easy position. The Club again pressed and Townsend was forced out to clear. Kowloon transferred play and Brown ran clean through and, beating Rodger, sent the ball outside the post. The Club took the ball to the other end and Knight kicked out to clear. King passed out to Millard but Bishop cleared from the centre, and play being transferred, Donovan sent in wide. Hall sent Brown in for Kowloon and Rodger saved at full length from the Kowloon centre. King again sent his forwards in, but Rodger was safe in goal. The Club got away and Purvis receiving from Forsyth sent the ball in wide. Offside against Kowloon stopped a rush, but Mair, miskicking, let in Coombes who ended up wide. At the other end the Club forced a corner and Kowloon cleared only to see Forsyth come in and test Townsend with a fast shot which the goalkeeper threw away. Purvis forced a corner and Begg headed in wide from the flag kick. Townsend had to run out to clear from a Club attack. Kowloon getting away on the right and Hall, passing to Mason who beat Rodger with a fine shot, opened the score for Kowloon. Kowloon did not hold the lead long for the Club put on pressure and after Begg had forced a corner which was cleared by Brown, the Club player came through the defence and giving Townsend no chance landed the ball safely in the net and made the score one all. Kowloon tried hard to take the lead and King sent in a long shot which Rodger easily cleared. The final whistle sounded with the game ending in a draw of one goal all.

The game was well contested, Kowloon being slightly superior in defence. For Kowloon, Morrison was prominent with his clever clearances, King played well throughout while Coombes put in good work on the wing. The Club was well served by Rodger in goal and Donovan as good at centre half. The Club forwards were weak in front of goal.

The teams turned out as under:—

Club.—J. Rodger; Israel and Bishop; Mair, Donovan and Moore; Purvis, Forsyth, Begg, Valentine and England.

Kowloon.—Townsend; Wheeler and Knight; Morrison, King and Pascoe; Millard, Hall, Brown, Mason and Coombes.

Referee.—Mr. Perryman.

H.M.S. "DURBAN" v. SOUTH CHINA.

On the Navy "B" ground before the usual crowd of Chinese spectators and a good number of sailors the Durbans upheld their reputation by winning the match by the odd goal in three. The game opened very evenly, the only thing of note being the big kicking between the backs. South China, much to the surprise of the Durban supporters, put on pressure after about five minutes' play; and Chan So, who was playing centre forward, following up from a long pass, took advantage of a miskick by Baker and beat Lawrence with a good shot, thus giving his side the lead. This reverse had its effect upon the sailors who put on pressure, but Lau was safe in goal. Keeping up the attack, the Durban were rewarded with a penalty kick, for Leung Tai Fong handled in the penalty area, and from the resulting kick the Durban made the scores level. Play was fast and even and the interval arrived with the score one all.

Resuming, South China took up the attack, and Lawrence saved well from Chui. At the other end the sailors forced a corner which was headed clear by Wong Shui Wa. Miller received and, going in, sent the ball over the bar. Play was transferred and Chui centering, Chan So headed into Lawrence's hands from close range. Hands against Durban 25 yards out, and Leung Yuk Ying sent in a high shot which Wong Shui Wa sent over the top. South China came in again and Lawrence saved by tipping the ball over the bar. The ball was sent behind from the flag kick. Cann was injured and left the field. Chui got away for South China and, beating Romayne, let the ball run over the line. The South China continued the pressure and Chan Kwong Yui landed the ball on top of the net from the touch line. Durban transferred play and Lau, running out, picked up the ball outside the penalty area and the sailors were awarded a free kick. Miller put in a good shot and Weymss headed past Lau, giving the Durban the lead. Cann returned but found he could not stay the pace so left the field for good. South China again took up the attack, Chan So swung the ball out to Chui who returned to centre and Romayne cleared. South China forced a corner and Chui placing in front of goal, Chan So headed over the bar. The Durban received from the goal kick and Weymss running down the wing centred, Lau running out and punting the ball to midfield. The closing play favoured South China and Chan So missed an easy chance just on the call of time. The game ended in a win for the Durban by two goals to one.

The teams turned out as under:—

"Durban."—Lawrence; Baker and Romayne; Davis and Legge; Miller, Darlison, Cann, Yeoman and Weymss.

South China.—Lau Hing Cheung; Fung Tai and Ng Kam Cheun; Leung Yuk Ying, Leung Tai Fong and Leung Yuk Tong; Chui Kwong Yeung, Fung Kui, Chan So, Kwong Shui Wa and Chan Kwong Yui.

Referee.—Mr. Hollands.

"HAWKINS" v. "AMBROSE."

This game was played on the Navy "A" ground and ended in a win for the flagship by a goal to nil. Hawkins won the toss and Ambrose took up the attack from the start offside against Hood who relieved. Hawkins transferred play and Barkham let the ball run over the line before centering. Hood muddled a pass from Wellbourne and was charged off the ball by Adkins. Hooper ran out to clear from Bolneaves and, the Hawkins getting away, Imeson sent behind. Barkham failed to take a pass from Osborne, and Butler cleared, but the Hawkins came again and the right winger dropping the ball in front of goal, Hynes missed an easy chance. Osborne was penalised for pushing, but the flagship men were soon back again and forced a corner. Barkham dropped the ball well in and a good chance was lost through Osborne again pushing. The play was of the give and take order, each goal being visited in turn, but the forwards failing when in front of goal. The interval arrived with blank sheet.

Resuming, the Ambrose got well away and Lawrence tipped the ball over the bar from a shot by Hood. The ball was sent behind from the flag kick and the Hawkins took play to the other end where Osborne was pulled up for offside. The Hawkins again got down and good combination ended with Osborne working the ball past Coysh and winning the match for his side. From the centre kick the Ambrose took up the attack and for a time gave the Hawkins' defence a warm time, but no further scoring took place and the flagship were winners of a very even game by a goal to nil.

The teams lined up as under:—

"Hawkins."—Hooper, Adkins and Bickers; Stirk, Crow and Sawyer; Barkham, Frost, Osborne, Haynes and Imeson.

"Ambrose."—Coysh; Welborne and Butler; Welsh, Edmonds and Woodcock; Harper, Bolneaves, Hood, Boulter and Carter.

Referee.—Mr. Millinms.

"TAMAR" v. KING'S.

At Sookunpoo before a large crowd of Service men, the game ending in a win for the sailors by a goal to nil. King's won the toss and the Tamar went away from the start, but were repulsed by the King's halves, who sent their forwards in the Tamar's half and a promising movement was spoilt by Scott getting offside. At the other end offside relieved from a dangerous rush by the Tamar. After about ten minutes' even play Brazendale was sent away on the left, and centering from near the corner flag, Hill obtained possession and gave Blacoe no chance with a hard drive, and scored what proved to be the only goal of the match. It was a brilliant effort on the part of both players and well deserved the applause given. The King's forwards attacked but found Routley very safe in goal. He saved several shots in quick succession. One shot from Dyer caused him to measure his length on the ground. The Tamar defence was playing a sound game, while Hudson was causing havoc among the King's forwards. The King's forced a couple of corners which proved abortive, while the next visit by the sailors was negatived with hands against Burnett. Williams now got in a good centre which the Tamar was lucky to clear. Scott lost a good chance by dallying with the ball and was relieved. The interval arrived with the Tamar leading by a goal to nil.

Resuming, the King's kept the sailors at home for ten minutes after which the sailors got away and were very unlucky not to add to their score. Play was again transferred, and Jones had hard luck with his shot, the ball striking the crossbar with a rattle which could be heard all over the ground. Hands against the Tamar close in looked dangerous, but the ball was got away. Several fruitless corners fell to the King's and the Tamar forwards got going. White had hard luck with his shot for the ball landed on top of the bar and rebounded to Blacoe who turned it over the top. The resulting corner kick was cleared and the King's were soon at the other end, where a couple of corners found them unable to level up the scores and the final whistle sounded with the Tamar winners of a hard fought game by a goal to nil.

For the winners the defence was sound, Routley, in goal being at the top of his form, while Hudson played a very sound game.

The King's team was greatly improved from last week, but the same fault was apparent among the forwards who would not part with the ball.

The teams turned out as under:—

"Tamar."—Routley; Smith and Grant; Oxland, Hudson and Bryant; Hill, Stewart, White, Burd and Brazendale.

King's.—Branco; Wynne and Griffiths; Newton, Hodgson and Barlow; Williams, Burnett, Lt. Jones, Dyer and Scott.

Referee.—Mr. Smith.

UNIVERSITY v. "AMBROSE."

In the Junior division some good football was seen.

On the Club ground the University had a win over the Ambrose by five goals to two. The sailors were the first to score and at the interval had a lead of two goals to one. The University put on 4 goals in the second half, and the sailors, failing to add to their half time score, were defeated as above.

UNITED A.C. v. "DURBAN."

On Navy "B" ground the United beat the Durban Reserves by 5 goals to 1. Brown opened the score for the United, and May and Chubb added goals before the interval which found the United leading by three to one. Almost from the restart Chubb put the United further ahead. Before the call for time Brown headed in from a centre by Botelho, and the United won as above.

"HAWKINS" v. KOWLOON.

On Navy "A" ground the Hawkins won by the odd goal in three, Kowloon opened the score for Kowloon, neting from a scramble in front of the Hawkins goal. At the other end, Mellitt mised from a penalty awarded the Hawkins for hands. Before the interval Wrigey scored for the Hawkins and the teams crossed over with the score one al. Wellman scored for the Hawkins after the change of ends.

ST. JOSEPH'S v. SOUTH CHINA "A."

Playing at home, St. Joseph's won by 5 goals to 1. Omar opened for the College team and Ogley put them further ahead before the interval. In the second half Ogley, Omar and L. Xavier added further goals for St. Joseph's, while Yeung Hok Kum scored for South China.

SOUTH CHINA "B" v. POLICE.

Playing on the South China ground, the home team beat the Warders by 6 to nil. Ip Kau scored 4 goals before the interval, and South China "B," adding 2 after the interval, the game resulted as above.

KING'S v. POLICE.

The Police fielded only ten men in the first half of the game at Sookunpoo Dangerfield scoring the only goal of the half. Dangerfield put the King's further ahead in the closing half and a fast game ended in a win for the King's as above.

R.G.A. v. FLEET AUXILIARIES.

A poor game ended in a win for the R.G.A. Pomfret and Sadler scored two goals each.

TALMADGE WEEK AT THE CORONET.

This is to be a "Talmadge Week" at the Coronet and the first of the two talented sisters to appear will be Norma Talmadge in a picture called "Love's Redemption." Usually one associates Norma with gorgeous evening gowns and glittering social functions but in this film she has what is for her a very unaccustomed role. The part she plays is that of "Ginger," a quaint little Jamaican girl of Spanish-English parentage, who makes it her business in life to reform a young Englishman who has got well on to the down grade in the West Indies. The man in him reasserts itself but at the crucial moment he inherits a fortune and is called back to England. He goes, taking "Ginger" with him as his wife, but the little Jamaican girl is unable to adjust herself to her new surroundings and there comes a climax which is unexpected but withal pleasing.

"Love's Redemption" will be screened at the Coronet until Thursday, and then Norma will give place to her sister Constance who will be seen in her latest comedy "Good References."

SHANGHAI HOTELS' NEW SCHEME.

FLATS AND A PARK.

The N. C. Daily News states:—

The announcement was made on Saturday that the Shanghai Hotels, Ld., have abandoned their scheme of building a new hotel on the site facing the Race Course, and have definitely decided to carry out a new scheme further west. The McBain property, consisting of a magnificent residence and 60 mow of land, with Bubbling Well Road, Gordon Road and Avenue Road for its boundaries, has been purchased, and plans are in course of preparation for a very ambitious scheme. The existing residence will be retained as the nucleus of the new hotel, and two new wings are to be added, in keeping with the handsome style in which the existing building has been designed and decorated. It is said that plans of the new hotel will provide for 300 rooms, including a number of suites de-luxe, and it is understood that the reception, dining and ball rooms will be on a scale which will enable the management to dine and dance 2,000 people in comfort.

In addition to the hotel, it is proposed to erect two blocks of residential flats, one on the western boundary facing Gordon Road and the other on the eastern boundary, facing a new road which will be put through from Bubbing Well Road to Avenue Road. These flats will have from three to five rooms and will be fitted up with the latest modern conveniences.

The feature of the scheme which has weighed most with the directors is that the spacious grounds will be an asset of great value from the point of view of both health and comfort. The old scheme provided for buildings only on 10 mow of land. The new one gives 20 mow of land for buildings, leaving 40 mow of pleasant park-like grounds for the use of residents and visitors. Their present character will as far as possible be retained, and features to be added will be provision for al fresco dancing in summer, and an open air swimming bath.

For the service of the hotel and flats, a special garage will be built. In addition, land has been acquired on the opposite side of Avenue Road upon which cold-storage chambers and an up-to-date laundry are to be built. From every point of view, the new scheme is considered to be superior to the old, and we understand plans as here outlined are definitely in hand. It is also understood that, upon completion of this scheme, the directors propose to rebuild the Astor House Hotel.

PROVINCIAL HIGHWAYS FOR KWANGTUNG.

MEANS OF RAISING FUNDS RECOMMENDED.

The Canton Times says:—

The construction of public highways in Kwangtung will be a fact, if the present authorities will have their way.

Director Chang Yow Yen, of the Kwangtung Public Highway Commission, has made plans to reorganize the work started several years ago. To assure the Commission of some funds at least to carry out the projected roads, Director Chang has requested the Government to use all rent proceeds from the public wharf, to reorganize the wine and tax collection methods so as to increase their receipts, to add forty cents surtax to every permit issued by the brothels monopoly, and to set aside all road tax, sixty from each voter in the districts, all exclusively for road construction purpose.

Director Chang will divide the road construction works into four main and eleven sectional divisions. The four main divisons will have headquarters at Shiuhing, Chaochow, Kiungchow, and Yam-Lim. The Punyu, Tsengshing, and Poklo districts will form the first highway section; Chaoping, Meibsien, and Tapu, second; Lo, Wun, and Kwei, third; Mou, Dien, Hua, Wu, Lim, and Sun districts, fourth; Hoi, Shui, and Hsu districts, fifth; Lung, Wo, Wu, and High districts, sixth; Ho, Tzu, Lin, and Sun districts, seventh; Kook, Loh, Yung, Yen districts, eighth; and the Ying, Yu, Lin districts, nineth. The other two sections will be at Kiungchow.

A WOMAN DIPLOMATIST.

The distinction of being the first woman to enter the United States diplomatic service belongs to Miss Lucille Atcherson, of Columbus, Ohio, who is recommended to the Senate by President Harding for appointment as Secretary of Embassy.

Miss Atcherson was engaged in relief work in France for some years. On her return to America recently, she entered for the Diplomatic Service examinations, which she passed with flying colours.

KRYPTOK LENSES
are the most perfect double focus glasses for both reading and distant. In the ordinary bifocal lens, the segment or part for reading is cemented to the distant lens, raising the segment above the surface of the main lens. The segment and the line of union are always more or less noticable. In Kryptok lens, no cement is used, but the reading segment is electrically fused in a depression in the main lens, while the whole lens is ground smooth on both sides to the desired focus. Kryptok lenses of any prescription in either regular or Toric form are manufactued by the Hongkong Optical Co., successors to Clark & Co., Optical Prescription Specialists, located in 53, Queen's Road Central.—ADVT.

WITHOUT PURE BLOOD HEALTH IS IMPOSSIBLE.
VETARZO BLOOD MEDICINE
Never before was there anything like it, nor are its marvellous properties likely ever to be equalled in diseases arising from impure blood. It searches out and expels from the vital current every lurking trace of poisonous matter, curing blood and skin diseases, scrofulous and glandular swellings, bad legs, abscesses, ulcers, eczema, gout, rheumatism, goitre or Derbyshire Neck, etc. It improves the general health and quickly removes long-standing bronchitis, asthma and hacking, straining, spasmodic cough, too often the precursor of consumption.
LIFE WITHOUT HEALTH IS LIVING DEATH.
VETARZO BRAIN AND NERVE FOOD.
For Nervous Breakdown & Chronic Weakness.
English Price 5/- (dilfer remedy).—The VETARZO REMEDIES CO., Gospel Oak, N.W. 5, London, Eng. Unprincipled Vendors may try to sell you something else for extra profit—do not accept it. Insist on having VETARZO. The genuine has words "VETARZO REMEDIES" on Government Stamp. Sold by LEADING CHEMISTS.
